Added the user_input_check function to the shape_calc file to check for user input and changed all cin to call the function. Also included the limits file for the user input check.

Added the shape_calc_unit_tester_file to test new functions in. Also created a get function and receive function in the file, while adding the necessary includes the file may or may not need.